1. The oil refineries at Almasfűzitő and Szőny (both near Komárom) produce gasoline and kerosene, most of which is shipped to Reni in Bessarabia on the lower Danube. The combined capacity of the two refineries is 35,000-40,000 tons of crude oil per month; in July 1951 a total of 36,000 tons of crude oil was processed.
2. Tankers arriving at the two refineries on 10 August 1951 could not unload their cargoes of crude oil because no storage tanks were then available.
